Dear Helen & Elmer,

I guess I'm still a kid at heart! I just couldn't wait for Christmas to open gifts from "Santa!" I think you must've read my mind - the sweaters you sent me are absolutely perfect for both my wardrobe - size & color & style - and my needs. My office at work is always freezing so I've become quite a sweater girl! Today I wore just the striped one and received compliments all day long. (I just had to show off!) Thank you so much for thinking of me - I really appreciate all your kindness. Sure wish we could be with you at Christmas time. Are you

HELLO!

Here's hoping

Your Christmas is gay

And cheery and merry

Each hour of the day -

And here's hoping the New Year

Will be happy all through

And one of the nicest ones

Ever for you!

getting together with the "cousins" for a big celebration during the holidays? Be sure to send some pictures!!

Love, Vicki
